

Sugar Land Citizens Police Academy Alumni Association Nomination Guidelines for 2018 Awards

Eligibility: Any SLCPAAA volunteer currently in good standing during 2018 and has not received this award in the past three (3) years.

Who can nominate: Any SLCPAAA member in good standing during 2018 may submit one nomination per category for this recognition award. Completed nomination forms must be submitted to Board Chair Lynn Pennington for consideration. The Board of Directors will review all submitted nominations and then select one individual to represent SLCPAAA and one Police Officer of the Year. All questions of eligibility should be directed to the SLCPAAA Board of Directors.

CPAAA criteria: • Volunteers who were positive and enriched the program • Volunteers who were reliable and provided their skills to support the delivery of services to the community • Volunteers who aided in increasing public awareness of municipal services, functions and responsibilities • Volunteer who enhanced the delivery of City services and complemented paid staff in their efforts • Volunteers whose assistance enhanced the effectiveness and quality of public services • Volunteers who fostered an atmosphere of service and community within the City of Sugar Land • Number of volunteer hours is not the sole criteria for recognition

Officer Award Criteria: • Officers who were positive and enriched the program • Officers who were reliable and provided their skills to support the SLCPAAA • Officers who aided in increasing public awareness of the SLCPAAA functions and responsibilities • Officers who fostered an atmosphere of service and community within CPAAA

Nomination Procedure: Fully complete the attached nomination form. All sections must be completed. Forms are available from any SLCPAAA Board of Directors member or from the CPAAA website www.slcptaaa.org. Completed forms must be submitted by Friday, 01/04/19 by 5pm. The Board of Directors will discuss and make their final selection by 02/05/19. Winners will be announced at the SLPD Annual Banquet in February 2019. Electronic versions of this form are acceptable if emailed to Lynn Pennington at lyjadell@yahoo.com . For answers to your questions, please contact Lynn Pennington.